COUNSELOR BIO

I came to find Jesus as my personal savior growing up in the church, but truly found him while I was in college. I have been actively pursuing a personal relationship with Him ever since. I am working at New Life Ranch this summer because this is where I spent my summers growing up and I want to give back a little from something that gave me so much!

HUNTER HAMON

